

How could you allow the Bush administration to sway you in an arena that allows big business to get bigger and step on the consumer in the process. Competition is so important to this country's growth and to allow more people access to various ways to make money. Big business has killed this country and you are allowing them to continue. Please reconsider the Media killing competition move you have made.